Asylum Act (AsylA)

of 26 June 1998 (Status as of 1 January 2019)

The Federal Assembly of the Swiss Confederation, based on Article 121 of the Federal Constitution^{1,2} and having considered the Dispatch of the Federal Council of 4 December 1995³, decrees:

Chapter 1 Principles

Art. 1 Subject matter

This Act regulates:

- a. the granting of asylum and the legal status of refugees in Switzerland;
- b. the temporary protection of persons in need of protection in Switzerland and their return.

Art. 2 Asylum

¹ In response to an application, Switzerland grants asylum to refugees in accordance with this Act.

² Asylum includes the protection and the legal status granted in Switzerland to persons on the basis of their refugee status. It includes the right to stay in Switzerland.

Art. 3 Definition of the term refugee

¹ Refugees are persons who in their native country or in their country of last residence are subject to serious disadvantages or have a well-founded fear of being exposed to such disadvantages for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group or due to their political opinions.

AS 1999 2262

² Amended by No I 1 of the FA of 1 Oct. 2010 on the Coordination of Asylum and Extradition Proceedings, in force since 1 Apr. 2011 (AS 2011 925; BBl 2010 1467).

³ BBl 1996 II 1

² Serious disadvantages include a threat to life, physical integrity or freedom as well as measures that exert intolerable psychological pressure. Motives for seeking asylum specific to women must be taken into account.

³ Persons who are subject to serious disadvantages or have a well-founded fear of being exposed to such disadvantages because they have refused to perform military service or have deserted are not refugees. The provisions of the Convention of 28 July 1951⁴ relating to the Status of Refugees are reserved.⁵

⁴ Persons who claim grounds based on their conduct following their departure that are neither an expression nor a continuation of a conviction already held in their native country or country of origin are not refugees. The provisions of the Convention of Refugee Convention are reserved.⁶

Art. 4 Granting temporary protection

Switzerland may grant temporary protection to persons in need of protection as long as they are exposed to a serious general danger, in particular during a war or civil war as well as in situations of general violence.

Art. 5 Ban on refoulement

¹ No person may be forced in any way to return to a country where their life, physical integrity or freedom are threatened on any of the grounds stated in Article 3 paragraph 1 or where they would be at risk of being forced to return to such a country.

² The ban on refoulement may not be invoked if there are substantial grounds for the assumption that, because the person invoking it has a legally binding conviction for a particularly serious felony or misdemeanour, they represent a threat to Switzerland's security or are to be considered dangerous to the public.

Art. 6⁷ Procedural principles

The procedures are governed by the Federal Act of 20 December 1968⁸ on Administrative Procedure (Administrative Procedure Act), the Federal Administrative Court Act of 17 June 2005⁹ and the Federal Supreme Court Act of 17 June 2005¹⁰, unless this Act provides otherwise.
