Federal Act on the Federal Patent Court (Patent Court Act, PatCA)

of 20 March 2009 (Status as of 1 December 2012)

The Federal Assembly of the Swiss Confederation,

on the basis of Article 191a paragraph 3 of the Federal Constitution,<sup>1</sup> and having considered the Federal Council Dispatch dated 7 December 2007,<sup>2</sup> decrees:

Chapter 1: Position

Art. 1           General principles

Art. 2           Independence

The Federal Patent Court is independent in its adjudication and is bound only by the law.

Art. 3           Supervision

AS 2010 513

<sup>2</sup> BBl 2008 455

Art. 4 Financing

The Federal Patent Court is financed by court fees and contributions from the Swiss Federal Institute of Intellectual Property (IPI) taken from the patent fees annually collected by the IPI.

Art. 5 Infrastructure and staff for administrative assistance services

<sup>1</sup> The Federal Administrative Court shall make available its infrastructure to the Federal Patent Court at cost and provide the staff required to provide administrative services to the Federal Patent Court.

Art. 6 Location and place of employment

The Federal Patent Court sits at the seat of the Federal Administrative Court. This location also serves as the place of employment of the permanent judges, court clerks and the administrative staff.

Art. 7 Special location

Where justified by the circumstances, the Federal Patent Court may sit at another location. The cantons shall provide the requisite infrastructure free of charge.

Chapter 2: Judges*Art. 8 Composition

<sup>1</sup> The Federal Patent Court is composed of judges with legal training and judges with technical training. The judges must have proven knowledge of patent law.

<sup>2</sup> The Federal Patent Court is composed of two permanent judges and a sufficient number of non-permanent judges. The majority of non-permanent judges must possess technical training.

<sup>3</sup> Inserted by No II 4 of the Federal Act of 1 Oct. 2010 (Data protection when using electronic infrastructure), in force since 1 April 2012 (AS 2012 941; BBI 2009 8513).

<sup>4</sup> SR 172.010

Art. 9 Election

<sup>3</sup> When electing judges to serve in the Court, it shall be ensured that technical fields of expertise and Switzerland's official languages are appropriately represented.

<sup>4</sup> During the preparatory phase for the election, the IPI as well as professional organisations and interested groups involved with patents may be heard.

Art. 10 Incompatibility of activities

<sup>2</sup> They may not engage in any activity that impairs their ability to fulfil the duties of their office, their independence, or is injurious to the reputation of the Court.

<sup>3</sup> They may not serve in any official capacity on behalf of a foreign state.

<sup>4</sup> Permanent judges may not act as professional representatives of third parties before the Court.

<sup>5</sup> Permanent judges on a full time basis may not hold office in a canton or engage in any other gainful activity. They may not be a member of the management board, board of directors, advisory board or serve as an auditor of a commercial enterprise.

Art. 11 Other gainful activities

In order to engage in gainful activities outside of the Court, permanent judges on a part time basis must obtain authorisation from the Administrative Board of Judges.

Art. 12 Incompatibility of persons

<sup>1</sup> The following persons may not serve simultaneously as judges of the Federal Patent Court where they are related to serving Court members in the following capacities:

- a. spouses, registered partners or domestic partners;
- b. spouses, registered partners and domestic partners of siblings;
- c. relatives in direct lineage and relatives in collateral lineage up to and including the third degree;
- d. relatives in-law in direct lineage and relatives in-law in collateral lineage up to and including the third degree;

<sup>2</sup> The provision of paragraph 1 letter d applies accordingly to domestic partnerships.

Art. 13 Term of office

Art. 14 Removal from office

The electoral authorities may remove a judge from office before he or she has completed his or her term where he or she:

- a. wilfully or through gross negligence commits serious breaches of his or her official duties; or
- b. has permanently lost the ability to perform his or her official duties.

Art. 15 Oath of office

Art. 16<sup>6</sup>

Art. 17 Employment and remuneration

The Federal Assembly shall issue an ordinance on the employment and remuneration of judges.

Chapter 3: Organisation and Administration

Art. 18 Presidency

<sup>4</sup> He or she presides over the Plenary Court and represents the Court in dealing with third parties.

Art. 19 Plenary Court

<sup>2</sup> Decisions and elections of the Plenary Court shall be valid where at least two-thirds of all judges take part in a session or a circular proceeding.

Art. 20 Administrative Board of Judges

<sup>2</sup> It comprises three persons, namely the two permanent judges and the Vice-President. Where a permanent judge serves as Vice-President, the Plenary Court shall select the third member from among the non-permanent judges. The appointment of a replacement may be provided for in a set of regulations.

- a. enacting rules and regulations on the organisation and administration of the Court, allocation of duties, the composition of the panels, disclosure of information, court fees, and the compensation of parties to proceedings, official representatives, experts and witnesses;
- b. all tasks and duties that are not assigned to another body under this Act.

Art. 21 Panels

<sup>1</sup> As a general rule, the Court makes its decisions as a three-member body (panel), of whom at least one member must possess technical training and one member legal training.

<sup>2</sup> On the order of the President, the Court shall make its decisions as a five-member panel, at least one member of which must possess technical training and one member legal training where this is in the interest of the further development of the law or the uniform application of the law.

<sup>3</sup> Where more than one technical field of expertise is to be judged in a dispute, on the order of the President, the Court shall make its decision as a panel composed of up to seven members, of whom at least one must possess legal training.

<sup>4</sup> The technically trained judges are appointed according to the technical field of expertise at issue in a dispute.

<sup>5</sup> At least one permanent judge must always sit on a panel other than in cases of force majeure.

Art. 22 Voting

<sup>2</sup> Where there is a tie, the President has the casting vote; elections and appointments are decided by drawing lots.

<sup>3</sup> The non-permanent judges and the permanent judges on a part time basis have full voting rights.

<sup>4</sup> Judges shall recuse themselves in matters in which they have a vested interest.

Art. 23            Single judges

<sup>1</sup> The President of the Federal Patent Court adopts decisions in the capacity of a judge sitting alone on:

- a. summary dismissal of manifestly inadmissible actions;
- b. petitions for preliminary measures;
- c. petitions for legal aid;
- d. dismissal of proceedings on grounds of irrelevance, withdrawal or recognition of the claim or settlement;
- e. actions for the granting of a licence according to Article 40*d* of the Patent Act of 25 June 1954.<sup>7</sup>

<sup>2</sup> He or she may charge other legally trained judges with some or all of these tasks.

<sup>3</sup> Where required for legal or factual reasons, a single judge may decide on petitions for preliminary measures together with two other judges in a panel of three. Where the understanding of a technical matter is of particular significance, decisions must be made in a panel of three.

Art. 24            Court clerks

<sup>1</sup> Court clerks take part in case briefings and in making decisions. They act in an advisory capacity.

<sup>3</sup> They perform other tasks that are assigned to them in a set of regulations.

<sup>4</sup> The employment and remuneration of court clerks is governed by the Federal Personnel Act of 24 March 2000.<sup>8</sup>

Art. 25            Disclosure of information

The Federal Patent Court shall disclose to the public information on its adjudication activities.

<sup>8</sup> SR 172.220.1

Chapter 4: Jurisdiction

Art. 26

<sup>1</sup> The Federal Patent Court has exclusive jurisdiction over:

- a. validity and infringement disputes and actions for issuing a licence in respect of patents;
- b. ordering preliminary measures before an action as defined in letter a becomes pending;
- c. the enforcement of decisions made under its exclusive jurisdiction.

<sup>2</sup> It also has jurisdiction in other civil actions that have a factual connection to patents, in particular concerning the right to patents or their assignment. The jurisdiction of the Federal Patent Court does not preclude that of the cantonal courts.

<sup>3</sup> Where the nullity or infringement of a patent is to be adjudicated before a cantonal court on a preliminary question or defence basis, the judge shall grant the parties a reasonable period of time for filing the validity or infringement action before the Federal Patent Court. The cantonal court shall stay the proceedings until a final and absolute decision has been made on the action. Where no action is filed before the Federal Patent Court within the specified time limit, the cantonal court shall resume the proceedings and the preliminary question or defence shall be disregarded.

<sup>4</sup> Where the defendant party files a counter-claim of nullity or infringement of a patent, the cantonal court shall refer both actions to the Federal Patent Court.

Chapter 5: Procedure

Section 1: Applicable Law

Art. 27

Proceedings before the Federal Patent Court are governed by the Civil Procedure Code of 19 December 2008,<sup>9</sup> unless otherwise provided in the Patent Act of 25 June 1954<sup>10</sup> or this Act.

Section 2: Recusal

Art. 28

Non-permanent judges shall recuse themselves in proceedings where a member of the judge's law firm or patent law firm or employer represents one of the parties.

<sup>10</sup> SR 232.14

Section 3: Representation of Parties

Art. 29

<sup>1</sup> In proceedings concerning the validity of a patent, patent attorneys may also represent parties before the Federal Patent Court as provided for in Article 2 of the Patent Attorney Act of 20 March 2009<sup>11</sup> provided that they engage in independent practice.

<sup>3</sup> In all proceedings before the Federal Patent Court, patent attorneys as defined in Article 2 of the Patent Attorney Act of 20 March 2009 shall be given the opportunity to present technical arguments concerning the facts of the case.

Section 4: Litigation Costs and Legal Aid

Art. 30 Litigation costs

Litigation costs are:

- a. court costs;
- b. representation costs.

Art. 31 Court costs

<sup>1</sup> Court costs are:

- a. court fees;
- b. expenses, namely costs for photocopying legal briefs; posting summonses and other items of service; translations, with the exception of those between the official languages; as well as compensation for experts and witnesses.

<sup>2</sup> The amount of the court fees is governed by the value in dispute, the scale and complexity of the case, the form of the proceedings, and the financial circumstances of the parties.

<sup>3</sup> As a general rule, they amount to between 1,000 and 150,000 francs.

<sup>4</sup> In setting the amount of the court fees, the Federal Patent Court may depart from the framework of paragraph 3 where this is justified by special reasons.

<sup>5</sup> It may waive court costs where they have not been occasioned by one of the parties or a third party.

<sup>11</sup> SR 935.62

Art. 32 Representation costs

The award of compensation for representation costs by the Federal Patent Court is made in accordance with the schedule of rates (Art. 33). The parties may submit an invoice.

Art. 33 Schedule of rates

The Federal Patent Court establishes the rates for litigation costs.

Art. 34 Imposition of litigation costs in legal aid cases

- a. counsel providing free legal representation receives appropriate compensation from the Federal Patent Court.
- b. the court costs are borne by the Federal Patent Court.
- c. the opposing party is reimbursed the advance on costs paid by it.
- d. the party receiving legal aid pays the opposing party's representation costs.

<sup>2</sup> Where the party receiving legal aid prevails and where it is presumed or known that the representation costs are not recoverable from the opposing party, counsel providing free legal representation receives appropriate compensation from the Court's cashier's office. The party receiving legal aid reimburses the court when it is later in a position to do so.

Section 5: Conduct of Proceedings and Procedural Formalities*Art. 35 Instructing judge

<sup>1</sup> The President presides over proceedings in the capacity of instructing judge until a decision is made; he or she may assign this task to another legally trained judge.

<sup>2</sup> The instructing judge may consult a technically trained judge at any time; this judge shall act in an advisory capacity.

Art. 36 Language of proceedings

<sup>1</sup> The Court shall designate one official language as the language of proceedings. The language of the parties shall be taken into consideration where it is an official language.

<sup>2</sup> In motions and oral hearings, each of the parties may express itself in an official language other than the language of the proceedings.

<sup>3</sup> English may also be used provided that the Court and the parties give their consent. The judgment and procedural rulings shall be drafted in one of the official languages in any event.

<sup>4</sup> Where a party submits documents that are not in one of the official languages or, in the case of paragraph 3, not in English, the Federal Patent Court may waive the requirement of a translation subject to the agreement of the opposing party. Otherwise it will direct that a translation should be made where this is necessary.

Section 6: Expert Opinions

Art. 37

- <sup>1</sup> Experts shall submit their opinions in writing.
- <sup>2</sup> The parties shall be afforded an opportunity to submit their position on the opinion in writing.
- <sup>3</sup> Where a technically trained judge possesses specific expertise, the judge's expert opinion shall be entered in the court record. The parties shall be given an opportunity to submit their position on the court record.

Section 7: Commenting on the Result of the Evidence

Art. 38

Once the evidence has been taken, the Federal Patent Court shall give the parties the opportunity, on reasoned request, to comment in writing on the result of the evidence.

Section 8: Procedure and Decision for Granting and Amending the Conditions of a Licence as Provided for in Article 40d of the Patent Act

Art. 39

- <sup>1</sup> The procedure for granting and amending the conditions of a licence as provided for in Article 40d of the Patent Act of 25 June 1954<sup>12</sup> is initiated by filing an action, in one of the forms specified by Article 130 of the Civil Procedure Code.<sup>13 14</sup>
- <sup>2</sup> It is settled by way of a decision within one month of action being filed.
- <sup>3</sup> Otherwise the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code of 19 December 2008 pertaining to summary proceedings apply.

<sup>12</sup> SR 232.14

<sup>13</sup> SR 272

<sup>14</sup> AS 2010 6413

Chapter 6: Final Provisions*Art. 40 Amendment of current legislation

The amendment of current legislation is regulated in the Annex.

Art. 41 Transitional provisions

The Federal Patent Court shall, where it is competent, adjudicate in cases that are pending before the cantonal courts when this Act comes into force, provided that the main hearing has not yet been held.

Art. 42 Referendum and commencement

<sup>1</sup> This Act is subject to an optional referendum.

Commencement date: 1 March 2010<sup>15</sup>

Art. 21, 23, 26–32 and 34–41 and Annex No. 2–4 enter in force on 1 January 2012.<sup>16</sup>
