Federal Act on Weapons, Weapon Accessories and Ammunition (Weapons Act, WA)

of 20 June 1997 (Status as of 23 January 2023)

The Federal Assembly of the Swiss Confederation,

on the basis of Article 107 paragraph 1 and Article 118 paragraph 2 letter a of the Federal Constitution<sup>1,2</sup> and having considered the Dispatch of the Federal Council dated 24 January 1996<sup>3</sup>,

Chapter 1    General Provisions

Section 1    Subject Matter, Scope of Application and Definitions

Art. 14        Purpose and subject matter

<sup>2</sup> It regulates the acquisition, bringing into Switzerland, export, storage, possession, carrying, transport, brokerage, manufacture of, and trade in:

- a.    weapons, essential or specially designed weapon components, and weapon accessories;
- b.    ammunition and ammunition components.

<sup>3</sup> The purpose of this Act is also to prevent the improper carrying of dangerous objects.

Art. 2<sup>5</sup> Scope of application

<sup>1</sup> This Act does not apply to the Swiss Army, the Federal Intelligence Service, the customs authorities or the police services. Nor does it apply to the military authorities, with the exception of Articles 32a<sup>bis</sup>, 32c and 32j.<sup>6</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Antique weapons are governed solely by Articles 27 and 28, and by the relevant criminal provisions of this Act. Antique weapons are defined as firearms that were manufactured before 1870, and cut, thrust or other weapons that were manufactured before 1900.

<sup>3</sup> This Act applies without prejudice to the provisions of federal hunting and military legislation.

Art. 3 Right to acquire, possess and carry weapons

The right to acquire, possess and carry weapons in compliance with this Act is guaranteed.

Art. 4<sup>7</sup> Definitions

- a. devices that allow projectiles to be fired by means of a propellant charge and that can be carried and operated by a single person, or objects that can be converted into such devices (firearms);
- b. devices that are intended to permanently endanger a person's health through the spraying or vaporisation of substances;
- c. knives whose blade can be opened by means of an automatic mechanism that requires the use of one hand only, butterfly knives, throwing knives, and daggers with a symmetrical blade;
- d. devices that are intended to injure a person, in particular knuckledusters, simple or spring batons, throwing stars and slingshots;
- e. electrical shock devices that can impair a person's power of resistance or permanently damage a person's health;
- f. compressed air and CO<sub>2</sub> weapons that develop a muzzle energy of at least 7.5 joules or that can be mistaken for real firearms due to their appearance;
- g. imitation, blank cartridge and airsoft weapons that can be mistaken for real firearms due to their appearance.

<sup>2</sup> Weapon accessories are defined as:

- a. silencers and their specially designed components;

<sup>6</sup> Amended by No I of the FA of 23 Dec. 2011, in force since 1 Jan. 2013 (AS 2012 4551 6775; BBl 2011 4555).

- b. laser and night vision devices, and their specially designed components;
- c. grenade launchers that are designed as an additional device for a firearm.

<sup>2bis</sup> High capacity loading devices are loading devices for semi-automatic centrefire weapons that have a capacity of:

- a. more than 20 rounds in the case of handguns;
- b. more than 10 rounds in the case of small firearms.<sup>8</sup>

<sup>3</sup> The Federal Council decides which objects are essential or specially designed components of weapons and weapon accessories, and are therefore regulated by this Act.

<sup>4</sup> The Federal Council defines which compressed air, CO<sub>2</sub>, imitation, blank cartridge and airsoft weapons, knives, daggers, electrical shock devices, devices in accordance with paragraph 1 letter b, and slingshots are considered to be weapons.

<sup>5</sup> Ammunition is defined as firing material containing a propellant charge whose energy is transmitted onto a projectile by ignition in a firearm.

<sup>6</sup> Dangerous objects are defined as objects such as tools, household appliances and sports equipment that can be used to injure a person. Penknives, such as the Swiss Army pocket knife and similar products, are not considered to be dangerous objects.

Section 2 General Bans and Restrictions

Art. 5<sup>10</sup> Bans relating to weapons, weapon components and weapon accessories

- a. automatic firearms and military launching devices for ammunition, for projectiles or for missiles that have an explosive effect, and their essential or specially designed components;
- b. automatic firearms modified to semi-automatic firearms, and their essential components; the foregoing does not apply to Swiss army firearms the ownership of which is acquired by the holder directly from the military authorities,

<sup>8</sup> Inserted by the Annex to the FD of 28 Sept. 2018 on the approval and the implementation of the exchange of notes between Switzerland and the EU on the adoption of Directive (EU) 2017/853 on the Amendment of the EU Weapons Directive, in force since 15 Aug. 2019 (AS 2019 2415; BBI 2018 1881).

<sup>9</sup> Originally para. <sup>2bis</sup>. Inserted by No 1 of the FA of 11 Dec. 2009 (Adaptation of the Implementation of the Schengen Acquis), in force since 28 July 2010 (AS 2010 2823; BBI 2009 3649).

<sup>10</sup> Amended by the Annex to the FD of 28 Sept. 2018 on the approval and the implementation of the exchange of notes between Switzerland and the EU on the adoption of Directive (EU) 2017/853 on the Amendment of the EU Weapons Directive, in force since 15 Aug. 2019 (AS 2019 2415; BBI 2018 1881).

and to components essential for maintaining the functionality of such weapons;

- c. the following semi-automatic centrefire weapons:
  - 1. handguns equipped with a high-capacity loading device,
  - 2. small firearms equipped with a high-capacity loading device;
- d. semi-automatic small firearms that may be shortened by means of a folding or telescopic shaft or without auxiliary means to a length of less than 60 cm, without losing any functionality;
- e. firearms that resemble an article of everyday use and their essential components;
- f. grenade launchers in accordance with Article 4 paragraph 2 letter c.

<sup>2</sup> The transfer, acquisition, brokerage for recipients in Switzerland, bringing into Switzerland and the possession of the following weapons are prohibited:

- a. knives and daggers in accordance with Article 4 paragraph 1 letter c;
- b. striking and throwing devices in accordance with Article 4 paragraph 1 letter d, with the exception of batons;
- c. electrical shock devices in accordance with Article 4 paragraph 1 letter e;
- d. weapon accessories.

<sup>3</sup> Shooting with the following weapons is prohibited:

- a. automatic firearms;
- b. military launching devices for ammunition, for projectiles or for missiles that have an explosive effect;

<sup>4</sup> Shooting using firearms in publicly accessible places outside officially authorised shooting events or shooting ranges is prohibited.

<sup>5</sup> Shooting using firearms in places not accessible to the public that have been appropriately protected, and shooting while hunting is permitted.

Art. 6<sup>11</sup> Bans and restrictions relating to ammunition

<sup>1</sup> The Federal Council may prohibit or make subject to compliance with special conditions the acquisition, possession, manufacture and bringing into Switzerland of ammunition and ammunition components that are proven to potentially cause serious injury.

Art. 6a<sup>12</sup> Inheritance

<sup>1</sup> Any person who acquires through inheritance weapons, essential or specially designed weapon components or weapon accessories that are prohibited under Article 5 paragraph 1 must apply for an exemption permit within six months.

<sup>2</sup> Foreign nationals who do not have a settlement permit but who are resident in Switzerland may only be granted an exemption permit for the acquisition of a weapon, an essential or specially designed weapon component or weapon accessory under Article 5 paragraph 1 if they submit an official attestation from their home country confirming that they are authorised to acquire such an object.

Art. 6b<sup>13</sup> Official attestation

<sup>1</sup> Persons who are resident abroad may only be granted an exemption permit for the acquisition of a weapon, an essential or specially designed weapon component or weapon accessory under Article 5 paragraph 1 if they submit an official attestation from their country of residence confirming that they are authorised to acquire such an object.<sup>14</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Where there is doubt as to the authenticity of the attestation or the person is not able to submit such an attestation, the canton shall forward the file to the Central Office. The Central Office shall examine the attestation or may issue one if appropriate.

Art. 7<sup>15</sup> Ban for nationals of certain states

<sup>1</sup> The Federal Council may prohibit the acquisition, possession, offering for acquisition, brokerage or transfer of weapons, essential or specially designed weapon components, weapon accessories, ammunition and ammunition components, and the carrying of and shooting with weapons by nationals of certain states:

- a. if there is considerable risk of improper use;
- b. in order to take into account resolutions by the international community or principles of Swiss foreign policy.

<sup>2</sup> The cantons may exceptionally allow persons referred to in paragraph 1 who participate in hunting or shooting events or who perform tasks relating to the protection of people or property to acquire, possess or carry a weapon, or to shoot.

<sup>12</sup> Inserted by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin (AS 2008 447; BBl 2004 5965). Amended by No I of the FA of 22 June 2007, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 5499 5405 Art. 2 let. d; BBl 2006 2713).

<sup>13</sup> Inserted by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBl 2004 5965).

Art. 7a<sup>16</sup> Implementation

<sup>1</sup> Persons subject to a ban under Article 7 paragraph 1 must register weapons, essential or specially designed weapon components, weapon accessories, ammunition and ammunition components with the competent authority in their canton of residence within two months of the ban coming into force.

<sup>2</sup> They may submit an application for an exemption permit within six months of the ban coming into force. Failing that, they must transfer possession of the objects to an authorised person within this deadline.

<sup>3</sup> If the application for an exemption permit is refused, the objects must be transferred to the possession of an authorised person within four months of the application being rejected: failing that, the objects will be confiscated.

Art. 7b<sup>17</sup> Prohibited forms of supply

Chapter 2 Acquisition and Possession of Weapons and Essential Weapon Components<sup>18</sup>

Section 1 Acquisition of Weapons and Essential Weapon Components<sup>19</sup>

Art. 8 Duty to obtain a weapon acquisition permit<sup>20</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Any person who wishes to acquire a weapon or essential weapon component requires a weapon acquisition permit.<sup>21</sup>

<sup>1bis</sup> Any person who applies for a weapon acquisition permit for a firearm that is not intended for use in sport, hunting or as a collector's item must provide the reason for its acquisition.<sup>22</sup>

<sup>2</sup> A weapon acquisition permit shall not be issued to any person:

- a. who has not yet reached 18 years of age;
- b.<sup>23</sup> who is subject to a general deputyship or is represented through a care appointee;
- c. if there is reason to believe that they may use the weapon to harm themselves or others;
- d.<sup>24</sup> in respect of whom a conviction for an act that indicates a violent disposition or that presents a danger to public safety, or for repeated felonies or misdemeanours appears in a standard private extract in accordance with Article 41 of the Criminal Records Register Act of 17 June 2016<sup>25</sup>.

<sup>18</sup> Amended by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBI 2004 5965).

<sup>20</sup> Amended by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBI 2004 5965).

<sup>21</sup> Amended by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBI 2004 5965).

<sup>22</sup> Inserted by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBI 2004 5965).

<sup>2bis</sup> Any person who acquires firearms or essential weapon components through inheritance must apply for a weapon acquisition permit within six months unless the objects are transferred to the possession of an authorised person within this deadline.<sup>26</sup>

3-5 ...<sup>27</sup>

Art. 9<sup>28</sup> Jurisdiction

<sup>1bis</sup> Foreign nationals who do not have a settlement permit but who are resident in Switzerland must present the competent cantonal authority with an official attestation from their home country confirming they are authorised to acquire the weapon or essential weapon component in that country.<sup>31</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Where there is doubt as to the authenticity of the attestation or the person is not able to submit such an attestation, the canton shall forward the file to the Central Office. The Central Office shall examine the attestation or may issue one where appropriate.

<sup>26</sup> Inserted by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBl 2004 5965).

<sup>27</sup> Repealed by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, with effect from 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBl 2004 5965).

<sup>30</sup> Inserted by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBl 2004 5965).

<sup>31</sup> Inserted by No I of the FA of 22 June 2007, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 5499 5405 Art. 2 let. d; BBl 2006 2713).

Art. 9b<sup>32</sup> Validity of the weapon acquisition permit

<sup>1</sup> The weapon acquisition permit is valid throughout Switzerland and authorises the holder to acquire a single weapon or a single essential weapon component.

<sup>3</sup> The weapon acquisition permit is valid for six months. The competent authorities may extend its validity by a maximum of three months.

Art. 9c<sup>33</sup> Notification by the person transferring possession

Any person who transfers the possession of a weapon or an essential weapon component must send a copy of the weapon acquisition permit of the person acquiring the weapon or essential weapon component to the authority responsible for issuing weapon acquisition permits under Article 9 within 30 days of concluding the contract.

Art. 10<sup>34</sup> Exceptions to the duty to obtain a weapon acquisition permit

- a. single-shot and multi-barrel hunting rifles, and replicas of single-shot muzzle loaders;
- b. manual repetition rifles designated by the Federal Council and typically used for off-duty and recreational target shooting recognised under the Armed Forces Act of 3 February 1995<sup>35</sup> and for hunting purposes in Switzerland;
- c. single-shot rabbit slayers;
- d. compressed air and CO<sup>2</sup> weapons that develop a muzzle energy of at least 7.5 joules or that can be mistaken for real firearms due to their appearance;
- e. imitation, blank cartridge and airsoft weapons that can be mistaken for real firearms due to their appearance.<sup>36</sup>

<sup>32</sup> Inserted by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBl 2004 5965).

<sup>33</sup> Inserted by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBl 2004 5965).

<sup>34</sup> Amended by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBl 2004 5965).

<sup>2</sup> The Federal Council may define other exceptions or restrict the scope of application of paragraph 1 for foreign nationals in Switzerland who do not have a settlement permit.

Art. 10a<sup>37</sup> Verification by the person transferring possession of a weapon

<sup>1</sup> Any person who transfers the possession of a weapon or an essential weapon component that does not require a weapon acquisition permit (Art. 10) must verify the identity and age of the person acquiring the weapon or essential weapon component by means of an official identity document.

<sup>2</sup> The possession of a weapon or essential weapon component may only be transferred if the person transferring possession may assume in the circumstances that there are no impediments for doing so under Article 8.

<sup>4</sup> The person transferring possession may ask the competent authority of the canton of residence of the person acquiring the weapon or weapon component whether there are any impediments to acquisition. This inquiry requires the written consent of the person acquiring the weapon or essential weapon component.<sup>38</sup>

Art. 11<sup>39</sup> Written contract

<sup>1</sup> A written contract must be concluded for transferring possession of any weapon or essential weapon component that does not require a weapon acquisition permit (Art. 10). Each contracting party must retain the contract for at least ten years.

- a. surname, first name, date of birth, home address and signature of the person who is transferring possession of the weapon or essential weapon component;
- b. surname, first name, date of birth, home address and signature of the person who is acquiring the weapon or essential weapon component;
- c.<sup>40</sup> type of weapon, manufacturer, model, calibre, weapon number and the date and place of transfer;

<sup>37</sup> Inserted by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBl 2004 5965).

<sup>38</sup> Inserted by No I of the FA of 22 June 2007, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 5499 5405 Art. 2 let. d; BBl 2006 2713).

<sup>39</sup> Amended by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 447 5405 Art. 1 let. e; BBl 2004 5965).

<sup>40</sup> Amended by No I of the FA of 22 June 2007, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 5499 5405 Art. 2 let. d; BBl 2006 2713).

- d.<sup>41</sup> type and number of the official identity document of the person who is acquiring the weapon or essential weapon component, or a copy of the identity document where possession of the weapon is transferred;
- e.<sup>42</sup> a reference to the processing of personal data in connection with the contract in accordance with the data protection provisions of the Confederation or the cantons, provided that the possession of firearms is transferred.

<sup>3</sup> Any person who transfers possession of a firearm specified in Article 10 paragraphs 1 and 3<sup>43</sup> must send the reporting office (Art. 31*b*) a copy of the contract within 30 day of its conclusion. The cantons may make further provisions for other suitable forms of notification.<sup>44</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Any person who through inheritance acquires a firearm or essential weapon component specified in Article 10 must transmit to the reporting office the details specified in paragraph 2 letters a–d within six months if he or she does not transfer possession of the object to an authorised person within this deadline.<sup>45</sup>

<sup>5</sup> The reporting office of the canton of residence of the person acquiring the firearm is the competent authority. For persons resident abroad, the competent authority is the reporting office of the canton in which the firearm was acquired.

Art. 11a<sup>46</sup> Lending of sports weapons to minors

<sup>1</sup> A minor may borrow a sports weapon from their shooting club or their legal representative if they can prove that they regularly use this weapon for target shooting and if no impediment under Article 8 paragraph 2 letter b or c applies.

<sup>2</sup> The legal representative must notify the reporting office in the minor's canton of residence about the loan of the weapon within 30 days. The reporting office may also be notified by the club that loaned the weapon providing that the legal representative has knowledge of this notification.

<sup>41</sup> Amended by the Annex to the FD of 28 Sept. 2018 on the approval and the implementation of the exchange of notes between Switzerland and the EU on the adoption of Directive (EU) 2017/853 on the Amendment of the EU Weapons Directive, in force since 15 Aug. 2019 (AS 2019 2415; BBl 2018 1881).

<sup>42</sup> Inserted by No I of the FA of 22 June 2007 (AS 2008 5499; BBl 2006 2713). Amended by No 6 of the FA of 19 March 2010 on the Implementation of the Framework Decision 2008/977/JI on the protection of personal data processed in the framework of police and judicial cooperation in criminal matters, in force since 1 Dec. 2010 (AS 2010 3387 3417; BBl 2009 6749).

Chapter 4 Trade in and Manufacture of Weapons

Section 1 Trade in Weapons

Art. 17<sup>56</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Any person who commercially acquires, offers for acquisition, passes on or brokers weapons, essential or specially designed weapon components, ammunition or ammunition components requires a weapons trading permit.

<sup>2</sup> A weapons trading permit is granted to a person who:

- a. is not subject to an impediment under Article 8 paragraph 2;
- b. is registered in the commercial register;
- c. in a test has shown themselves to possess adequate knowledge of the relevant weapons and ammunition, and the statutory provisions;
- d. has special commercial premises in which weapons, essential and specially designed weapon components, weapon accessories, ammunition and ammunition components can be kept securely;
- e. guarantees the proper conduct of their business affairs.

<sup>3</sup> Legal entities must designate a member of the management who is responsible within the company for all aspects concerning this Act.

<sup>4</sup> The Federal Department of Justice and Police issues the examination regulations and defines the minimum requirements for business premises.

<sup>6</sup> The Federal Council regulates the conditions for the participation of holders of foreign weapons trading permits in public weapons trade fairs.

<sup>7</sup> If a transfer of possession takes place between holders of a weapons trading permit, the person transferring possession must notify the competent authority of their canton of residence of the transfer of possession, in particular of the type and number of objects transferred, within 30 days of conclusion of the contract.

Section 2 Manufacture of Weapons

Art. 18<sup>57</sup> Commercial manufacture, repair and conversion

A weapons trading permit is required by any person who commercially:

<sup>56</sup> Amended by No I of the FA of 22 June 2007, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 5499 5405 Art. 2 let. d; BBl 2006 2713).

<sup>57</sup> Amended by Art. 2 of the FD of 11 Dec. 2009 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Exchange of Notes between Switzerland and the EC concerning the Adoption of Directive 2008/51/EC on Amending the Weapons Directive, in force since 28 July 2010 (AS 2010 2899; BBl 2009 3649).

- a. manufactures weapons, essential or specially designed weapon components, weapon accessories, ammunition or ammunition components;
- b. modifies weapon parts that are essential to its functioning or impact; or
- c. repairs or converts firearms, their essential or specially designed weapon components, weapon accessories, ammunition or ammunition components.

Art. 18a<sup>58</sup> Marking of firearms

<sup>2</sup> All firearms and their essential components and accessories brought into Switzerland must be marked individually and clearly.

<sup>3</sup> Markings must be applied in such a way that they cannot be removed or altered without mechanical effort.

<sup>4</sup> The Federal Council may make provision for unmarked firearms to be brought into Switzerland for a maximum of one year.

<sup>58</sup> Inserted by Art. 3 No 6 of the FD of 17 Dec. 2004 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Bilateral Agreements between Switzerland and the EU on the Association with Schengen and Dublin (AS 2008 447; BBl 2004 5965). Amended by No I of the FA of 22 June 2007, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 5499 5405 Art. 2 let. d; BBl 2006 2713).

<sup>59</sup> Second sentence repealed by the Annex to the FD of 28 Sept. 2018 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Exchange of Notes between Switzerland and the EC concerning the Adoption of Directive (EU) 2017/853 on the Amendment of the EU Weapons Directive, with effect from 1 Sept. 2020 (AS 2019 2415, 2020 2953; BBl 2018 1881).

<sup>60</sup> Amended by Art. 2 of the FD of 11 Dec. 2009 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Exchange of Notes between Switzerland and the EC concerning the Adoption of Directive 2008/51/EC on Amending the Weapons Directive, in force since 28 July 2010 (AS 2010 2899; BBl 2009 3649).

<sup>61</sup> Inserted by Art. 2 of the FD of 11 Dec. 2009 on the Adoption and Implementation of the Exchange of Notes between Switzerland and the EC concerning the Adoption of Directive 2008/51/EC on Amending the Weapons Directive, in force since 28 July 2010 (AS 2010 2899; BBl 2009 3649).

<sup>62</sup> Amended by the Annex to the FD of 28 Sept. 2018 on the approval and the implementation of the exchange of notes between Switzerland and the EU on the adoption of components, and the non-commercial conversion of objects into weapons as defined in Article 5 paragraphs 1 and 2 are prohibited.

<sup>2</sup> The non-commercial conversion of objects into weapons or essential weapon components other than those specified in Article 5 paragraph 1 requires a permit. Articles 8, 9, 9b paragraph 3, 9c, 10, 11 paragraphs 3 and 5 and Article 12 apply by analogy.

<sup>3</sup> The cantons may allow exceptions to the prohibitions in paragraph 1. The Federal Council shall define the conditions in more detail.

Art. 20<sup>63</sup> Prohibited alteration

Section 3 Maintaining Records and Duty of Disclosure

Art. 21<sup>64</sup> Maintaining records and notification requirement<sup>65</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Holders of weapons trading permits are required to maintain records on the manufacture, modification, procurement, sale or other distribution of weapons, essential or specially designed weapon components, weapon accessories, ammunition and gunpowder, and on repairs that re-establish the shooting capability of firearms.

<sup>1bis</sup> They are required to give online notice within 20 days to the cantonal authority responsible for operating the information system (Art. 32a Abs. 2) of any procurement, sale or other distribution to an acquirer in Switzerland.<sup>66</sup>

Art. 27<sup>94</sup> Carrying a weapon

<sup>1</sup> Any person who carries a weapon in publicly accessible places or who wishes to transport a weapon requires a permit to carry a weapon. The permit must be carried at all times and presented to the police or customs authorities on request. Article 28 paragraph 1 remains without prejudice.

<sup>2</sup> A person is granted a permit to carry a weapon if:

- a. they are not subject to any of the restrictions under Article 8 paragraph 2;
- b. they can plausibly justify that they require a weapon to protect themselves, other persons or things from genuine danger;
- c. they have passed a test on handling weapons and on knowledge of the legal requirements for using weapons; the Federal Department of Justice and Police issues examination regulations.

<sup>3</sup> The permit is issued by the competent authority of the canton of residence for a specific type of weapon and for a maximum of five years. It is valid throughout Switzerland and may be subject to conditions. Persons resident abroad obtain the permit from the competent authority of the canton where they enter Switzerland.

- a. holders of a hunting permit, hunting inspectors and gamekeepers for carrying weapons while exercising their duties;
- b. participants of events at which weapons are carried in connection with historic events;

<sup>5</sup> The Central Office shall notify the competent authority of the canton of residence immediately of any member of the armed forces or person required to enlist who is newly registered in the DAWA database and whose personal weapon or borrowed weapon has been taken from them or confiscated, or who has not been given a personal or borrowed weapon. Notification is sent to the information systems of the competent canton of residence under Article 32a paragraphs 2 and 3 through an automated process.

<sup>6</sup> Data from the DEWS database must be forwarded to the competent authorities of the country of residence of the person concerned.

<sup>7</sup> Data from the information system under Article 32a paragraph 3 may be disclosed to federal and cantonal law enforcement services and judicial authorities, cantonal police services, the Federal Office of Police (fedpol), the customs authorities and the competent departments of the military authorities by means of an online access procedure to enable them to fulfil their statutory duties.

<sup>8</sup> The Federal Council regulates the scope of data disclosure to the federal and cantonal authorities. It also regulates the control, storage, correction and deletion of the data.

Section 2

Data Processing and Data Protection under the Schengen Association Agreements<sup>142</sup>

Art. 32d<sup>143</sup> Disclosing personal data to a Schengen state

Disclosing personal data to the competent authorities of Schengen states is equivalent to disclosing personal data between federal bodies.

Art. 32e Disclosing personal data to a state that is not bound by any of the Schengen association agreements

<sup>2</sup> If a third state does not guarantee an adequate level of data protection, personal data may be disclosed in special cases if:

- a. the person concerned has consented beyond any doubt; if the personal data or personality profiles are particularly sensitive, the person must give their explicit consent;
- b. disclosure is necessary to protect the life or physical integrity of the person concerned; or <sup>142</sup> Amended by No I of the FA of 22 June 2007, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 5499 5405 Art. 2 let. d; BBI 2006 2713).

- c. disclosure is necessary to safeguard overriding public interests or to determine, exercise or assert legal rights in court.

<sup>3</sup> Besides the cases mentioned in paragraph 2, personal data may also be disclosed in special cases if sufficient guarantees ensure adequate protection of the person concerned.

<sup>4</sup> The Federal Council determines the scope and the terms of the guarantees to be provided.

Art. 32<sup>144</sup>

Art. 32g Right to information

The right to information is based on the federal or cantonal data protection provisions.<sup>145</sup> The controller of the data file also provides information on available details concerning the source of the data.
